

BSF Scripture for Lesson #24

FIRST DAY:

1. Read the lesson notes and References

SECOND DAY:

Read Genesis 39:1-18

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

[39:1] Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

[2] The LORD was with Joseph and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master.

[3] When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did, [4] Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned. [5] From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field. [6] So he left in Joseph's care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was well-built and handsome, [7] and after a while his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"

[8] But he refused. "With me in charge," he told her, "my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care. [9] No one is greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?" [10] And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even be with her.

[11] One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside. [12] She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

[13] When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house, [14] she called her household servants. "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us! He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed. [15] When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

[16] She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home. [17] Then she told him this story: "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me. [18] But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

THIRD DAY

Read Genesis 39:19-23

[19] When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is how your slave treated me," he burned with anger. [20] Joseph's master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined.

But while Joseph was there in the prison, [21] the LORD was with him; he showed him kindness and granted him favor in the eyes of the prison warden. [22] So the warden put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there. [23] The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

Question 9a

Genesis 50:20; [20] You intended to harm me, * but God intended * it for good * to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives. *

Psalm 119:50; [50] My comfort in my suffering is this: Your promise preserves my life. *

John 16:33; [33] "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. * In this world you will have trouble. * But take heart! I have overcome * the world."

BSF Scripture for Lesson #24

Romans 8:28-29; [28] And we know that in all things God works for the good * of those who love him, * who * have been called * according to his purpose. * [29] For those God foreknew * he also predestined * to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, * that he might be the firstborn * among many brothers.

2 Corinthians 4:17; [17] For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all.

1 Peter 6-7; [6] In this you greatly rejoice, * though now for a little while * you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. * [7] These have come so that your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire *—may be proved genuine * and may result in praise, glory and honor * when Jesus Christ is revealed. *

Revelation 21:4; [4] He will wipe every tear from their eyes. * There will be no more death * or mourning or crying or pain, * for the old order of things has passed away.”

Question 10

Genesis 41:39-40; [39] Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has made all this known to you, * there is no one so discerning and wise as you. * [40] You shall be in charge of my palace, * and all my people are to submit to your orders. * Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you. *

FOURTH DAY

Read Genesis 40:1-8

The Cupbearer and the Baker

[40:1] Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt. [2] Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker, [3] and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined. [4] The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them.

After they had been in custody for some time, [5] each of the two men—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison—had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

[6] When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected. [7] So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were in custody with him in his master's house, “Why are your faces so sad today?”

[8] “We both had dreams,” they answered, “but there is no one to interpret them.”

Then Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams.”

FIFTH DAY

Read Genesis 40:9-23

[9] So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said to him, “In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, [10] and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes. [11] Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in his hand.”

[12] “This is what it means,” Joseph said to him. “The three branches are three days. [13] Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer. [14] But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison. [15] For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon.”

BSF Scripture for Lesson #24

[16] When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favorable interpretation, he said to Joseph, “I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread. [17] In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

[18] “This is what it means,” Joseph said. “The three baskets are three days. [19] Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and hang you on a tree. And the birds will eat away your flesh.”

[20] Now the third day was Pharaoh's birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his officials: [21] He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh's hand, [22] but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.

[23] The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.
