FIRST DAY:

1. Read the lesson notes and References

SECOND DAY:

Read Genesis 47:13-27

Joseph and the Famine

[13] There was no food, however, in the whole region because the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

[14] Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan in payment for the grain they were buying, and he brought it to Pharaoh's palace. [15] When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all Egypt came to Joseph and said, "Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? Our money is used up."

[16] "Then bring your livestock," said Joseph. "I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone." [17] So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, their sheep and goats, their cattle and donkeys. And he brought them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

[18] When that year was over, they came to him the following year and said, "We cannot hide from our lord the fact that since our money is gone and our livestock belongs to you, there is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land. [19] Why should we perish before your eyes—we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we with our land will be in bondage to Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate."

[20] So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was too severe for them. The land became Pharaoh's, [21] and Joseph reduced the people to servitude, from one end of Egypt to the other. [22] However, he did not buy the land of the priests, because they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and had food enough from the allotment Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.

[23] Joseph said to the people, "Now that I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed for you so you can plant the ground. [24] But when the crop comes in, give a fifth of it to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you may keep as seed for the fields and as food for yourselves and your households and your children."

[25] "You have saved our lives," they said. "May we find favor in the eyes of our lord; we will be in bondage to Pharaoh."

[26] So Joseph established it as a law concerning land in Egypt—still in force today—that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh's.

[27] Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number.

THIRD DAY

Read Genesis 47:28-31

[28] Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.

[29] When the time drew near for Israel to die, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise that you will show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, [30] but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried."

"I will do as you say," he said.

[31] "Swear to me," he said. Then Joseph swore to him, and Israel worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

Question 1

Genesis 23:17-20; [17] So Ephron's field in Machpelah near Mamre—both the field and the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field—was deeded [18] to Abraham as his property in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of the city. [19] Afterward Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre (which is at Hebron ) in the land of Canaan. [20] So the field and the cave in it were deeded to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.

Genesis 49:29-32; [29] Then he gave them these instructions: “I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, [30] the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field. [31] There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried, and there I buried Leah. [32] The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites. ”

Question 2

Genesis 46:2-4; [2] And God spoke to Israel in a vision at night and said, “Jacob! Jacob!”

“Here I am,” he replied.

[3] “I am God, the God of your father,” he said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. [4] I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph's own hand will close your eyes. ”

FOURTH DAY

Read Genesis 48:1-14

Manasseh and Ephraim

[48:1] Some time later Joseph was told, “Your father is ill.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim along with him. [2] When Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.

[3] Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and there he blessed me [4] and said to me, ‘I am going to make you fruitful and will increase your numbers. I will make you a community of peoples, and I will give this land as an everlasting possession to your descendants after you.’

[5] “Now then, your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you here will be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine. [6] Any children born to you after them will be yours; in the territory they inherit they will be reckoned under the names of their brothers. [7] As I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan while we were still on the way, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath” (that is, Bethlehem).

[8] When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, “Who are these?”

[9] “They are the sons God has given me here,” Joseph said to his father.

Then Israel said, “Bring them to me so I may bless them.”

[10] Now Israel's eyes were failing because of old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought his sons close to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

[11] Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face again, and now God has allowed me to see your children too.”

[12] Then Joseph removed them from Israel's knees and bowed down with his face to the ground.

FIFTH DAY

Read Genesis 48:15-22

[15] Then he blessed Joseph and said,

“May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,

the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day,

[16] the Angel who has delivered me from all harm—may he bless these boys. May they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase greatly upon the earth.”

[17] When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand on Ephraim's head he was displeased; so he took hold of his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. [18] Joseph said to him, “No, my father, this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.”

[19] But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will become great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a group of nations.” [20] He blessed them that day and said,

“In your name will Israel pronounce this blessing: ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.’”

So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

[21] Then Israel said to Joseph, “I am about to die, but God will be with you and take you back to the land of your fathers. [22] And to you, as one who is over your brothers, I give the ridge of land I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.”
